Press Release

The European Movement helps its partners in the Ukraine fight for the cause of democracy.

“The European Movement International (EMI) expresses its deep concern at the events surrounding the presidential election campaign in the Ukraine and trusts that this crisis will be resolved in accordance with the fundamental principles of legality and democracy.”

Following the resolution approved during its Federal Council in Malta (27th November), the European Movement International (EMI) is preparing to support Ukrainian Civil Society in its fight for a democratic future.

The EMI Secretary General, Mr Henrik Kröner is currently in discussions with partners of the European Movement in the Ukraine in order to help prepare a meeting in the Ukraine, aiding its National Council in Kiev in the fight for the cause of democracy and democratic institutions in the Ukraine following the recent presidential elections.

The EMI and its National Councils are committed to working for democracy and respect for the rule of law throughout Europe and to this end it extends its sympathy and support, as well as to all other groups working for a democratic future in their country.
